SINOPSIS

In the last five generations, since 1870, the old way of writing has been abandoned. No one has used it in this time frame, and no one knows it anymore. Another knowledge from Antiquity that has been lost.

If it were Known, the original texts of all the foundational writings of our history could be recovered. The works of homer, Aesop, C. Nepos, Catullus, Phaedrus, Virgil, Ovid, Cicero, Lucan, Seneca, Q. Curtius, Sallust, Eutropius, Ausonius, Prudentius, Petrarch, La Fontaine, A. de Musset, Victor Hugo, and others less well-known authors walk through the pages of this book.

The Method allows for the retrieving the original writing, with the text and even the punctuation marks chosen by the author, in any language, both modern and ancient.

Examples in Greek, Latin, English, French, Italian, and Spanish are given.

A system that today seems unbelievable, born from the ingenuity of our predecessors.

Something that had been lost. Now within the reach of any scholar of our history and literature.
